Our customers

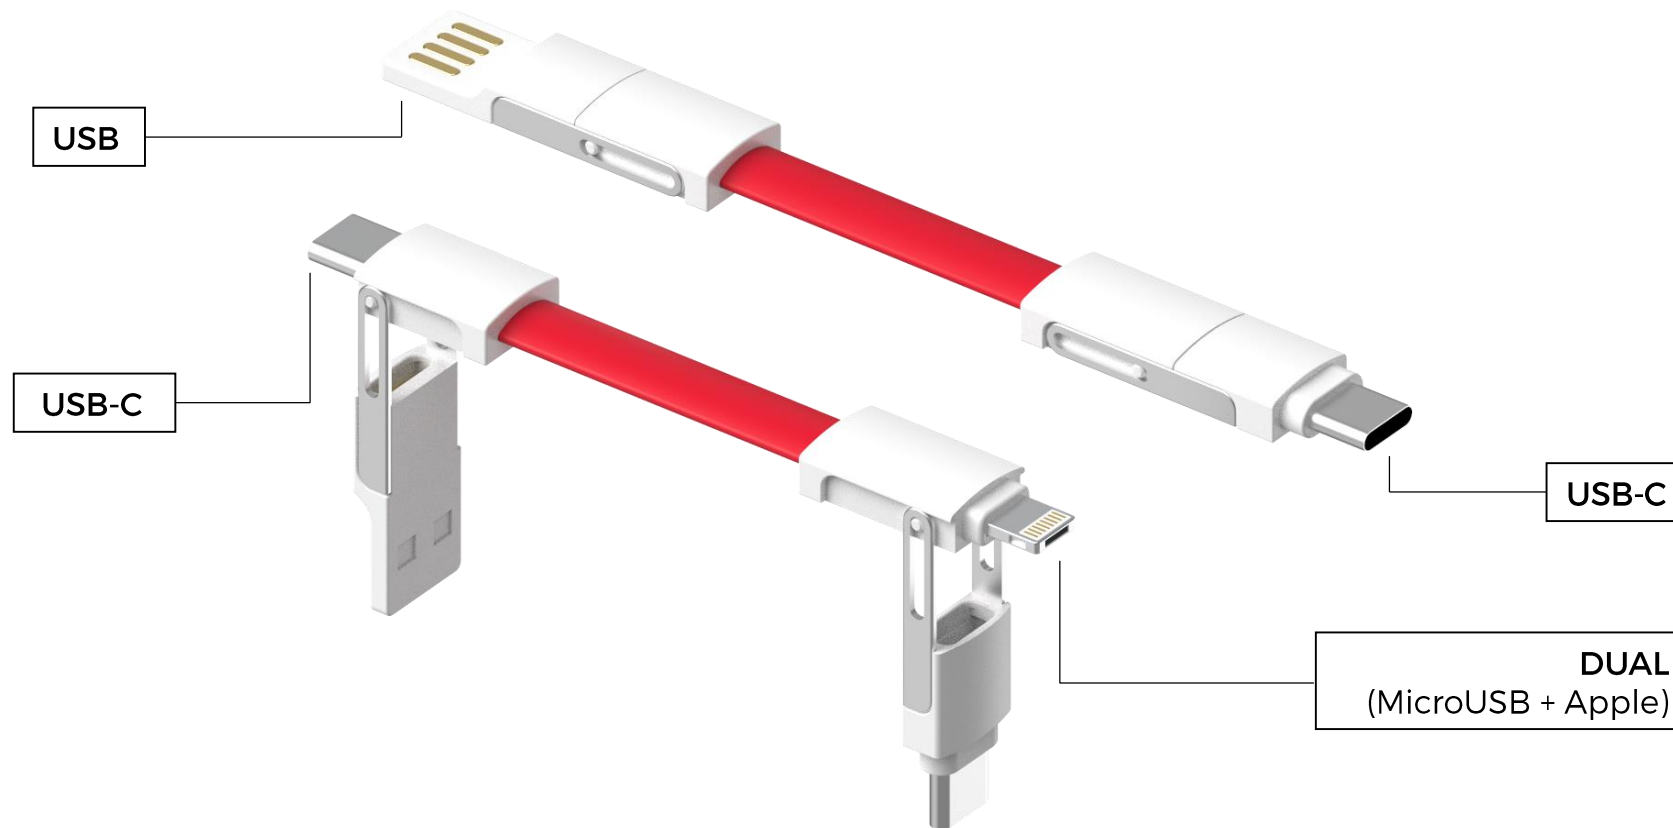

With years of experience in the B2B market, processes and logistics have been implemented at their top to always go beyond customers' expectations.

One cable for any device

Nowadays we are surrounded by portable devices, which have 3 different charging connectors and 2 input ports. It means that people should carry many cables with them to charge their devices.

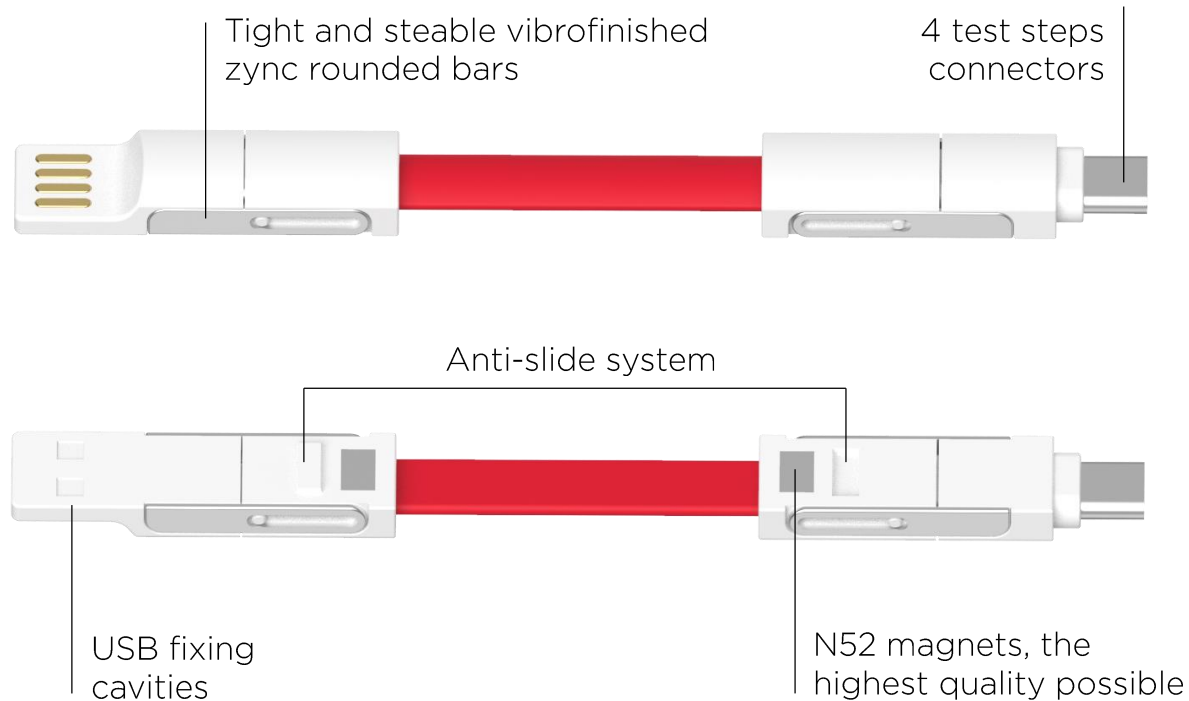

This is why inCharge 6 was born and reached the current 6 (all) patented connections layout.

Patented design.

Don't trust in fake copies of inCharge which can damage your customers' devices. Our product has a patented design and is produced using the highest quality materials and connectors, in compliance with worldwide regulations.
